

LŌKAHI

PLAY MUSIC IN SCHOOL

Lokahi: The Ukulele Collective is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit supported by Servco Pacific and Fender Musical Instruments Corporation with a mission to unite passionate individuals from schools, the music industry, nonprofits, and the broader community to transform music education in Hawai'i. Lōkahi gives all students, no matter their circumstances, access to a high-quality music education rooted in cultural identity.

Thank you to Paula Fuga and our partners for making this moment a reality.

SERVCO

Fender

And thank you to all the schools and their amazing teachers for participating in the first ever Ho'olōkahi Lyrics Writing Challenge.

- First Place: Dustin Chang - Pearl Harbor Elementary
- Second Place: Sandra Sato - Waiākea Intermediate School - Period 3 Class
- Third Place: Laurelle Riola-Catbagan - 'Ele'ele Elementary
- Best Ukulele Performance: Beth Uale - Leilehua High School
- Best Ensemble Performance: Ina Young - St Patrick School
- Best Vocal Performance: Brit Oliphant, Anna Geyer, Summer Petersen, Christina Cowell - Kula School
- Most Colorful Performance: Celeste Endo - Queen Ka'ahumanu Elementary
- Most Cinematic Performance: Cathy Lagrimas - Honouliuli Middle School
- Best Choreography: Sandra Sato - Waiākea Intermediate School - Period 2 Class
- Best Themed Lyrics: Catherine Baldaino - Ala Wai Elementary
- Catchiest Lyrics: Valerie Mimura + Mrs Higashi - Salt Lake Elementary

TAG US ON INSTAGRAM @lokahiukulele

LŌKAHI